South Carolina Compulsory Attendance Law requires those students age 5 to 17 to attend school. Although kindergarten is not mandatory in South Carolina, children who turn 5 years of age by September 1st must meet this requirement unless a kindergarten waiver is signed with the public school or the student is enrolled as a member of a homeschool association.

Seventeen year-olds are not included in the compulsory attendance law, however membership with an association is sometimes required in certain situations. For example: some homeschoolers choose to enroll in technical or community college classes as part of their senior year. Some technical schools require membership in an association before they will allow registration. It is the parent-teacher's responsibility to make an informed decision about whether to enroll your 17 year-old in an association.

Important Notice:

Our business year runs from July 1st to June 30th. If you were a member of PHA during the 2012-2013 academic year, your membership expires June 30, 2013. Students are considered truant 10 days after public schools start in your area. Unless you have legally registered to homeschool according to one of the options listed on the front of this page, your student will be considered truant after the first 10 days of public school in your district. Please plan ahead and submit your application early enough to allow for processing and receipt of your 2013-2014 certification.

Records:

Parent-Teachers are required to maintain all teacher generated student records in their personal files. PHA requires only the following records/forms each year from its members who apply by mail rather than online: Forms #1-#3 (see above) are required by PHA each year., PHA also requires a signed Mid-Year Checklist (to be postmarked by 1/15/14) and a Parent-Teacher Completion Statement (to be postmarked by 6/15/14) for our files. (These 2 forms will be included in your member packet.) These two documents will serve as affidavits which verify that the requirements set forth by Section 59-65-47 and PHA are being performed throughout the year and have been met at the end of the year. Members who fail to submit the required forms by the due date will receive a notice from PHA that they are on probation and that if their reports, along with a $10.00 late fee, are not received within 10 business days, their membership will be terminated and they will be in non-compliance of Statute 59-65-47. In the event a membership is terminated by PHA due to non-compliance, a letter of termination notification may be sent to the appropriate school district authorities. Terminated members may not reinstate or re-apply.
